

DESE and WGBH Partnership for Educational Resources

We've published NEW content to PBS LearningMedia from some of our recent broadcasts, and more resources will be added to these collections soon! Have you watched one of these shows on television or via streaming? Explore the accompanying resources, contextualized for educational use.

Have you already used some of resources, or do you plan to? Tell us your stories at education@wgbh.org!

Webinars

Educational Broadcast Jump Start

Get a preview of what we've got planned for our daily blocks of educational broadcast programming on WGBH The World channel, for students with limited or no internet access, or to augment online learning. This session will preview content for May 18-3, show accompanying digital learning resources, and give you tips for extending learning if you assign or recommend the programming to students.

Register

Webinars for Educators produced by WGBH Education

About PBS Learning Media
WGBH Education
VIEW FULL PLAYLIST

Professional Development Webinars
WGBH Education
Updated 7 days ago
VIEW FULL PLAYLIST

History and Social Studies Webinars
WGBH Education
VIEW FULL PLAYLIST

View Webinars On Demand

Watch recordings of most of our webinars to get content overviews, and tips and tricks for using our resources with students. Freely available on the WGBH Education YouTube channel, sorted by subject.

Watch

Share with Families

NOVA Films on Technology

During the Covid-19 shelter-at-home time period, NOVA has been putting together themed collections of films for binge-streaming. This latest collection is on technology, covering Da Vinci, self-driving cars, rockets, and more. Watch and learn any time!

DESE and WGBH Partnership for Educational Resources

